Ecological State

Regen Network monitors on-the-ground conditions and generates trusted attestations about the ecological state of a piece of land.

Verified Change of State

Network members assess the impact of their ecological actions on the land using Ecological State Protocols.

Direct Rewards

Ecological Contracts allow organizations to allocate funds and distribute them according to specific verified outcomes.

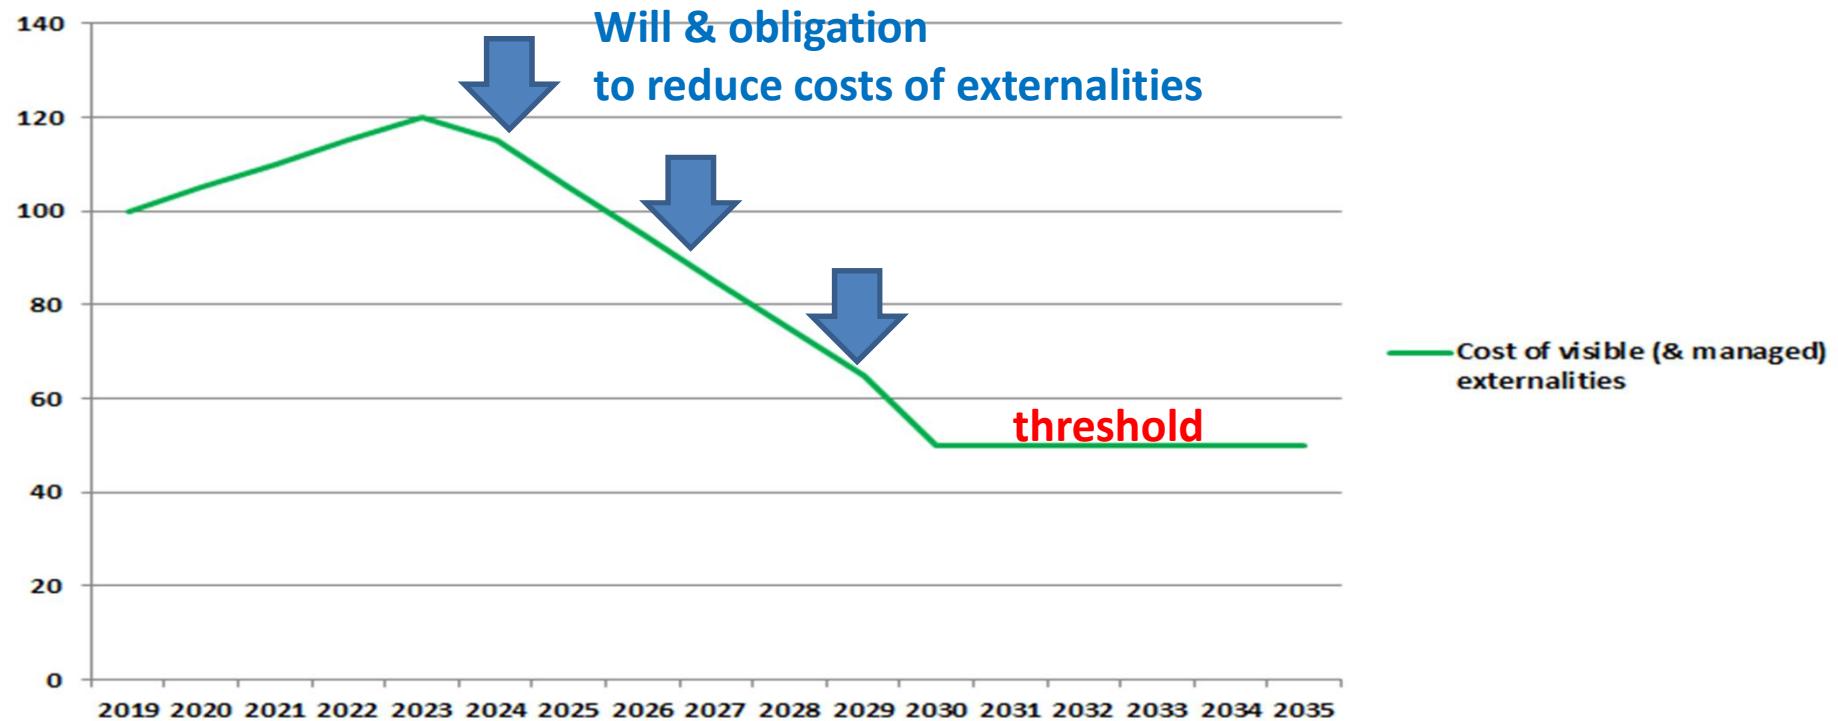

Let's (re-)connect the dots !

MERCI

A photograph showing six hands holding up large, three-dimensional letters against a plain white background. The letters spell out the word "MERCI". The 'M' is blue, the 'E' is pink, the 'R' is light green, the 'C' is orange, and the 'I' is yellow. The hands are positioned at different heights, with some letters being held higher than others, creating a sense of depth. The lighting is bright and even, highlighting the colors of the letters.

Shifting Economy

Your Practical Toolkit to enter the Next Economies

« The guideline of this Practical Toolbox, is an invitation to imagine and implement new dreams to connect human beings, and transform the grief of the planetary village into human happiness »
