A NEW E-LEARNING PROFESSIONAL LEVEL CERTIFICATE BY EBBF

Does the thought of giving up your personal time or taking time off from work to invest in your own personal and professional development stop you from moving forward? What if you could develop your skills on your own schedule? What if you could collaborate and learn with people from across the world about issues of relevance to your life, work and future? E-learning gives you this opportunity! It is the new norm to educate people wherever they are and keep busy professionals up to date with the latest skills and knowledge anytime, anywhere!

WHAT IS THIS COURSE ABOUT?

At some point in their lives many professionals come to question the work culture they experience. Many work environments prohibit individuals from unleashing their true potential others lack motivation, collaboration or meaning. Facing these realities, some individuals dig in and carry on, some disengage, others quit their jobs - some however seek solutions! This course offers answers to common challenges associated with today's work culture. It is intended for individuals who recognize the potential for improvement in the way they and their organizations work and are ready to do things differently.

WHAT IS MORAL LEADERSHIP?

Everybody these days seems to talk about ethics, maybe because so many individuals and organizations seem to lack it! Moral Leadership responds to this need. Moral Leaders live by universal moral and ethical principles. These are individuals who, irrespective of their role and position, follow their moral compass and thereby exert influence on their peers and the organizations they belong to. Moral Leadership is about the right discourse, accompanied by the right traits, carried out through the right skills. Moral Leadership is transformational on the individual and collective level! Moral Leadership ensures personal and organizational growth and success.
